

SUPERVISION OF MECHANICAL AND ELECTRICAL INSTALLATIONS:

- Chemhem authorized engineers and designers conceive the optimal concept of mechanical and electrical services in cooperation with Client's architects and specialist. Afterwards, engineers are preparing documentation for all procedures requested by the Law as well as for the tendering and construction phases
- Our specialists provide also other consulting services such as the technical due diligence, comparative analysis of alternative solutions, analysis of operational problems and improvement proposals, checking of design documentation and so on
- Our licensed engineers, experienced site managers and other specialist provide wide range of supervision and consulting services

